Interim Minister's Letter: "Finishing Strong, Ending Well"

As of this writing (Monday April 03), the discernment process to select the "best match" for WUU will require more time than we had initially planned. Your Search Committee will let you know what's next. Meanwhile, please rest assured: All is well. Many decades of experience have shown that the search process cannot be rushed: it needs to take as long as it takes. Remember this: There are many splendid examples of successes by extending the search process a few weeks, or even for a year: One such example is Rev. Jennifer's and Rev. Preston's call to WUU about a decade ago.

I devoted four days last week to participating in a UUA-sponsored seminar for about fifty soon-to-be-retiring UU ministerial colleagues. The purpose of our seminar is reflected in its title: "Finishing Strong, Ending Well: Crafting the Culminating Chapter of Your Ministry". My colleagues last week ranged in age from their mid-fifties to their mid-seventies. Some among us have nearly a half-century of ministerial service to congregations. Among the many touchstones of our conversations together were these questions: "How shall I remain vital in the years leading up to my retirement? How will I approach the next chapter in my ministry in a way that is sustaining and communicates a legacy? How will I attend to my soul's needs at this chapter in ways that can enhance personal and spiritual focus and renewal?"

I shall be stepping down from full-time ministry on June 30th of this year, following the completion of my contract with WUU. This milestone will represent thirty years of service to congregations. It's a nice round number: fifteen years of settled ministry, followed by fifteen years of interim opportunities for congregations-in-transition. Moreover, this year marks the fiftieth-anniversary for Diann and me. We are celebrating in many special occasions throughout the year, and are eagerly anticipating new vistas / opportunities in doing so. Where might we live, following June of this year? Many options will remain open to us. Such flexibility is quite intentional. Stay tuned, as we continue our explorations

Meanwhile: Your Ministerial Search Committee will continue their dedicated work on your behalf. They will keep you advised of their ongoing work. As always they will retain strict confidentiality insofar as the names of prospective ministers under their consideration. Your Board will keep you advised of options for transitional ministry at WUU following my departure on Friday June 30.

All good wishes in these interesting times.

Rev. Dave Johnson, Interim Minister (thru June 2017)

April Worship Schedule

April 2, 2017

9:45 am & 11:15 am

"Compassion for Creatures"

Led by Chris Llewellyn

Jane Goodall notes: "Animals are far more aware and intelligent than we ever imagined...they are individuals in their own right."

Today we'll explore compassionate treatment for all sentient beings and the magnitude of our use of animals in our daily lives.

Please note that due to the subject nature, this service is not suitable for young children after the children leave for Religious Education classes.

Our Membership book is open for signing on Sunday April 2nd. If you have completed Pathway to Membership sessions 1 and 2 or are transferring from another UU Congregation, we welcome you to come forward at the end of the service to sign our Membership Book, signifying your commitment to WUU.

April 9, 2017

9:45 am & 11:15 am

The Paradoxical Parade: Born This Way!

(Or: The Little Monsters' Lament: "Am I Good Enough?")

Rev. Dave Johnson, Interim Minister

What might Lady Gaga (Stefani Germanotta) have in common with Jesus of Nazareth? Why should we care? Both of these historical figures honored the "nobodies" of their times. Lady Gaga's fans include her "Little Monsters": Youngsters of all ages who have been ridiculed, bullied, or judged as not good enough. Jesus of Nazareth lived among, and directed his messages toward, the destitute and outcast of his time – those who had been judged as not good enough. The myths and legends surrounding Palm Sunday will serve as our backdrop, as we consider the ongoing struggle for human worth and dignity – in the Ancient Near East, and close to home. Lady Gaga's words (and music) will be included, as well as the Sermon on the Mount. Can you distinguish which is which?

April 16, 2017

Easter Breakfast at 9:45 am

One Worship Service at 11:15 am

"Easter Sunday: On the Road to Emmaus"

Rev. Dave Johnson, Interim Minister

Longfellow's poem entitled "A Psalm of Life" begins:

*Tell me not, in mournful numbers, Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers, And things are not what they seem.
Life is real! Life is earnest! And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul.*

On Easter Sunday we will consider that most profound of mysteries: The continuity of life, of love, and of things that matter. We'll include wisdom from The Brothers Karamazov, King Lear, and the New Testament -- as windows (or lenses) through which to be open to amazement.

Prior to the Worship Service, we will gather in the narthex at 9:45 for a delicious Pancake Breakfast, prepared by Jim and Kathy Willis, and assisted by cadres of volunteers. Come join in the celebration.

The annual Easter Egg hunt for children will follow the worship service, at 12:15 pm.

April 23, 2017

9:45 am & 11:15 am

"Who Are Your Friends?"

Mole, Water Rat, Badger and Toad "

Rev. Dave Johnson, Interim Minister

Frederick Buechner observes: "Friends are people you make part of your life just because you feel like it, not for any particular reason. The job you do, the family you have, the achievements and blunders of your life, your religious convictions or lack of them -- are all set aside when the two of you get together. If you are old friends you may know all these things about each other but they are beside the point. You meet with a clean slate every time, and you meet on equal terms. Anything may come of it, or nothing may. That doesn't matter. Only the meeting matters." We will re-visit the friends of the classic story "The Wind in the Willows".

Ministerial Search Committee

Ministerial Search Committee report:

The Ministerial Search Committee has more work to do! As Rev. Dave reminded us, the search process cannot be rushed: it needs to take as long as it takes. Lots of positive feedback from the UUA as well as from ministers in search have us feeling good about WUU and our committee.

We will enter a second round of consideration during April and May. The typical schedule for second round of searching is below; however, search committees may set their own pace and offers to candidate may be made at any time.

- Last week of April and first week of May - conduct phone or video interviews
- Mid to late May - schedule pre-candidating weekends
- Late May to early June - schedule candidating week

Those of you who were around during WUU's last ministerial search recall that we did not find a match in the first year. If we had, we never would have even met Jennifer and Preston!

“THE NECESSITY OF VIRTUE”

Adult Enrichment Series: Williamsburg Unitarian Universalists
Eight Sundays, February 26 through April 16; 12:45-2:00 pm, Room 105

Rev. Dave Johnson, facilitator

Registration required (contact Ellyn in office); class limit is 14

Resource: Presentations at UUA General Assembly by the Rev. Dr. Galen Guengerich, Senior Minister, All Souls Unitarian Church, New York City

Purpose: Unitarian Universalists are often described as believing in salvation by character, rather than by grace or by faith. In other words, we believe in virtue: the personal spiritual discipline of becoming the kind of individuals we ought to become, so that we might live as human beings ought to live. This series aims to examine our capacity to strive for moral excellence. What is your ethical basis for deciding what to do and how to live? Might this question be relevant now -- as we come to terms with the outcomes of the 2016 election?

Remaining Dates and Topics:

Session 7, Sunday April 09: Transcendence

Transcendence is our experience of being deeply connected to the natural world, and to all that is our life. Transcendence enables us to go beyond the limited confines of our daily lives and to see the reality of the world and our place in it. The hallmarks of transcendence are humility (recognition of our utter dependence) and gratitude (recognition of our obligation in return) – and the defining element of our faith.

Session 8, Sunday April 16: Hope

Virtue calls us to be lighthearted about present troubles and optimistic about future possibilities. In religious terms, hope arises from faith: a leap of the moral imagination that connects the world as it is to the world as it might become. (Peter Steinke said: “Hope is Faith – on tiptoes.”) To escape the clutches of the present, we need a sense of humor. To imagine the contours of the future, we need faith. And to work our way from the present toward the future, we need optimism. Hope springs from humor about the present, faith in the future, and optimism: the power to do the work.

NOTE—April 11, 2017 WUU Building Use

On Tuesday, April 11 Temple Beth El of Williamsburg has contracted our building to hold their Passover Seder. Please honor their sacred holiday and do not come to the WUU Campus that day. Thank you for your understanding.

From the Board

Our monthly Board meeting, open to all, was held on Tuesday at 7:00. Here is a brief review of our decisions.

- Jim Kent lead a discussion on his committee’s assignment to determine the “financial contribution off record” for purposes of determining who is and is not a WUU member. That seems to be such an easy question but after a length discussion, the Board decided to continue the discussion next month.
- Dave Neiman recommended that his task force on how to allocate space in our new facilities had completed most of its work and he recommended that they redirected their efforts in support of the Alternate Income Task Force. Suzanne Huddleston will be invited to join the group. Approved.
- Disruptive Behavior Policy approved. The need for this policy was cited by the Committee for Right Relations and the Ministerial Search Committee. The Board modified a UUA Disruptive Behavior Policy model to address three concerns: Perceived threats to the safety of any adult or child, disruption of WUU activities, or reduction in the appeal of WUU to potential or existing members. This new policy helps to make WUU a more welcoming place and offers case-by-case responses to different levels of disruptive behavior. A copy of this policy will be placed on the website under Committee for Right Relations.
- The Board selected Cindy Frezek, Les Solomon, Rachel Delbos, Sally Fisk, and Wayne Moyer to represent us at the General Assembly in New Orleans. John Whitley will serve as an alternate. Others (Kim Scholpp and Jo Solomon) also plan to attend.
- Thanks to Roy Snyder for his years of service as one of our Trustees and to Larry Ventis, scheduled to become a Trustee in July, for agreeing to start his service a few months earlier.
- Thanks to Vicki Hall for providing our process check and Susan Fournier for getting a head start on her new Board responsibilities in July by actively engaging in our deliberations.

Les Solomon
WUU Board President

Share the Plate

On Sunday, April 9, our Share the Plate Program will donate the plate collection to a new recipient: Latisha's House Foundation.

Latisha's House Foundation, Inc. is a 501 (c) (3) dedicated to giving young women exiting state foster care, vulnerable to exploitation, or trapped in the sex industry a new beginning and a safe place to call home. By working with social services, churches, law enforcement, businesses and individuals in the community, young women are given a safe place to sleep, GED classes, job training, counseling, and the tools to learn to live a full and productive life.

Their first residence opened in 2014 in Williamsburg. They will be opening other homes in the Peninsula and various areas in Virginia where there is this unanswered need.

For more information, please contact: www.latishashouse.com or latishashouse1@gmail.com.

To nominate a Share the Plate recipient, email stp@wuu.org.

38th Annual Life Membership Awards Banquet
"NAACP: We've Come Too Far...No Turning Back"

Mark your calendars and purchase tickets for the 38th Annual Life Membership Banquet on Sunday, May 7, 2017, at the DoubleTree by Hilton, 50 Kingsmill Road, Williamsburg, VA 23185. The evening begins with a silent auction at 4:30 p.m., followed by dinner and program at 5:30 p.m. This event is the NAACP's major fundraiser to support their civil rights advocacy work and community outreach efforts in health and education, to provide scholarships to area youth, and to help facilitate developmental opportunities for middle and high school students through their youth work. As the NAACP representative says, "We've come too far, and we need your support to keep moving forward."

Tickets are $65 per person, or $95 to include a one year NAACP Membership. You can mail your check or call for a credit card payment: York-James City-Williamsburg NAACP, 479 McLaws Circle, Suite 3, Williamsburg, VA 23185.

Kenya Night Pot-luck Supper
Friday, April 14th
6-8:30 PM in the narthex and sanctuary

Kenya Night is a fundraiser for MAO Kenya, a 501-C3 non-profit organization that benefits families in Kenya through programs to improve health and education.

Kenya Night is a family friendly, pot-luck supper. Children of all ages welcome. MAO Kenya will provide a main dish of rice, beans and chicken (vegetarian option will be available) and beverages.

Attendees will bring a side dish or dessert.

Admission are FREE but attendees should sign up to attend so we can prepare the right amount of food. Sign-up via email (maokenyaorg@gmail.com) or at the MAO Kenya table in the Gathering Hall after Sunday services.

Activities for the night include:

- African story time for the children
- A drumming circle for everyone
- A slide show featuring Debra Hill's beautiful photos of family life among the Maasai people in Kenya
- A sale of African crafts from the Dream Shop at ESH.

How can you show your support for MAO Kenya?

We will gladly accept donations that night or via Paypal on our website (www.maokenya.org).

The New Coffee Bar—and Coffee!

Coffee is back at WUU on Sunday mornings, thanks to our “pop-up” coffee-making volunteers. Thank you to those who stepped in temporarily to make coffee while a more formal process is being created: Jim and Kathy Willis, Dave Neiman, Carolyn Greathouse, Carolyn Wilson and Jack Bachner, Camilla Buchanan, Moe Bernier and William Morrison, and Susan Holler.

In May, WUU’s new “Coffee Crew” takes over. “Coffee Crew” is part of the larger Fellowship Team, chaired by Catherine Laarhoven, which is responsible for the “fun” part of WUU—potlucks, lunches, and coffee. The Crew is made up of former members of the Sunday Morning teams (now dissolved), folks who joined on Activities Fair Sunday, and other volunteers who may wish to help (contact Catherine at catnye75@gmail.com if you want to add your name to the list).

Caring Team

Thank you to all who joined our team at the Volunteer Fair. We are pleased to add a number of children to our team. They will be available to do some singing visits and will make greeting cards.

The caring team is available to provide short-term, supportive, emergency care for members and friends as needed. If you would like to join us or know of someone in need please contact:

A Golden Opportunity to Join our Community Outreach

The greater Williamsburg area has much poverty. We, the WUU’s have committed to sort and size clothes at the FISH clothes closet each Tuesday during the month of May from 9:30 a.m.-3:00p.m. No special skills are required. 3 to 4 people (men and/or women) are needed each Tuesday in May. If you can help out only half a day, that can be arranged, too. In 2015, 1999 adults and 1365 children were served with a total of 9108 outfits. The need is great and continues to grow. Please consider helping out—the fellowship is terrific!

Please call or email Carol Sherman at 229-3344 or cwsher@verizon.net. Thanks in advance!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT Donna Stanford

Donna Stanford grew up in Columbus, Ohio and graduated from Ohio State University with a degree in elementary education. After a decade of teaching in elementary schools in Ohio, Donna moved to Williamsburg in 1970 to teach at Rawls Byrd Elementary and later, Berkeley Elementary (now Berkeley Middle School).

A teaching colleague invited Donna to the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, a recently formed female barbershop chorus in Williamsburg. For the next thirteen years, Donna sang tenor with the Publick Times Chapter. During those Adeline years, Donna met and married her husband, Dave, who was singing with a men's barbershop chorus, the Dukes of Gloucester Street. His day job was professor of mathematics at the College of William and Mary.

Donna and Dave became charter members of WUU in 1989. Over the years, their son, Doug, learned UU values through R.E. programs and with the support of many caring adults at WUU. Both Donna and Dave have served the congregation in various ways. Donna's involvement has included Choir, Board service, chair of the RE committee, and leader of the environmental action group which eventually led to our accreditation as a Green Sanctuary Congregation in 2012.

Outside of WUU, Donna enjoys travel, concerts, movies, reading and painting. But her greatest joy is time with her two grandchildren--Cillian (2) and Nora (5 months).

Musical Opportunities

Tabernacle Choir sings April 30

Have you thought about singing in the choir? Want to sing but too many conflicts? This is your chance! On April 30, The WUU Tabernacle Choir sings. ONE rehearsal at 10:30 before the service. All are welcome. Questions? Contact Jamie Bartlet jcbart@wm.edu

Women's Choir sings May 12

This is an opportunity for females of any age who like to sing. Music is available now and rehearsal will begin soon. For music and more information contact Vicki Hall vickihallva@gmail.com.

Easter Schedule

- 9:45 am Pancake Breakfast
11:15 am Worship Service
12:30 pm Children's Easter Egg Hunt

The schedule for Easter Sunday (April 16th) has changed a bit. Rather than have a 9:45 am service we are going to be enjoying a congregational breakfast! As in years past our main dish will be pancakes (sorry not in the shape of bunnies). Our schedule for Easter will be Breakfast at 9:45 am, Worship Service at 11:15 am, Children's Easter Egg Hunt at 12:30 pm.

Cooking is taken care of (thanks Jim and Kathy Willis!); we can use some volunteers for set up, clean up, and serving. There is no cost but donations are welcome. Please contact Elyn in the office to volunteer or make a donation (office@wuu.org or 220-6830)

*Williamsburg
Learning Tree*

We have a host of new classes and returning favorites in the Williamsburg Learning Tree's Spring lineup. Qigong, Yoga & Meditation, Alternative Drug-Free Health classes, CPR, Sex Ed for Teens or Adults from the perspective of a family physician, Gardening, Cooking, Investing (at any age!), Entrepreneurship, Selling Your House – and don't forget Sailing, Cribbage (Roy Snyder's wonderful class!) Mah Jongg, Magic, and Harmonica lessons! WUU's own Eileen O'Brien is presenting an outstanding new class, "Loving Across Differences." Under our new program structure, we can still accept new class ideas from all of you who have so much to offer to the community, so please get in touch if you are willing to share your knowledge, passion, or expertise. Visit the website – www.WilliamsburgLearningTree.org – to browse or register. Do you prefer a paper catalog, or do you want to register over the phone? No problem – just let me know. Call me at 757-220-9975 or email me at Suzanne@WilliamsburgLearningTree.org. Thanks everyone! Suzanne Huddleston

WUU 2017 CIRQUE DES RÊVES Auction

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We will be looking for help in the following areas:

Ticket sales, data entry, cashiers, runners, recorders, greeters, servers (food & wine/beer), at the wine glass table, aids for silent auction, raffle sales, an a/v team and of course the infamous set-up & take down. This will be an exciting night – you will want to be a part of it! Get in on the fun early!!

If you can't help please consider donating – This is WUU's BIGGEST fundraiser! There will be both silent and LIVE auctions. Handmade items such as jewelry, artwork, quilts or knitted/crochet items as well as tickets to sporting events & concerts, plays or museums, dinners & homemade treats are all popular options from years past. Babysitting services, special talents, knowledge shared and creative gift baskets – the (night) sky is the limit to make someone's dreams come true. Contact Gwen Wolverton-Diggs gwen.wd@gmail.com

Religious Education at Williamsburg Unitarian Universalists SUUmmer FUUn 2017

The final day of regular Religious Education programming in 2017 will be May 21st, when we will celebrate in music with Children's Chapel led by Dave Robbins. There is no Religious Education May 28 through 2 July in order to give our volunteers a well-earned rest.

When

We are hosting SUUmmer FUUn from July 9 through August 27. Nursery care for infants to age three is available all Sundays during the second service in the nursery, which is located near the McGiffert wing doorway.

Who

Children ages 4-17

What

Summer Fun is an opportunity for kids (and adults, too) to get creative! Each Sunday during the summer, everybody (kids included!) begins in the sanctuary at 10:00 AM. The kids will get "sung out" of the service, and then walk over to rooms 110 & 108 for SUUmmer FUUn.

Help

Would you like to offer your help? We need lead teachers to lead the themed sessions, and assistant teachers to assist the lead teachers.

Lead Teachers

Take the kids outside for brief "run around time" to burn off steam
Gather the children for circle time and ask "how did you U.U. this week?"
Lead the session

Assistant Teachers

Take attendance
Grab any extra supplies needed
Assist in helping make the day safe and fun for all

Educational Goal: We strive to create a safe, supportive, environmentally friendly, racially just, LGBTQ+ affirming atmosphere that is conducive to emotional, spiritual, and social growth.

Sunday Dates

- July 9 Lego Day
- July 16 Science Day
- July 23 Food Day
- July 30 Dance Day
- August 6 Collaborative Art Day
- August 13 Chalk Art & Giant Bubbles Day
- August 20 Mosaic Makers Day
- August 27 Dale Chihuly Day

Decision Making

We have a wonderful opportunity for children in grades 4/5 to participate in the gold standard of sexuality education, Our Whole Lives. Dr. Camilla Buchanan, both an OBGYN and a trained OWL teacher, and her students at the College of William and Mary will lead two sessions for the students covering topics of decision making, puberty, health and safety, and communication all within the context of our Unitarian Universalist values of respect, communication, and factual learning. Following this offering, Dr. Buchanan and her class will be taking the program on the road to the Olderkesi Primary School, Kenya to share this important class with students there. Not only will your child get the benefit of the OWL program, we'll be helping families across the globe make healthy and respectful decisions.

Parents will be asked to purchase The Parent Guide to Our Whole Lives (scholarship funds available) at $15 per book. Contact Austen at Austen@wuu.org for more information.

THRIVE: LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS FOR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS OF COLOR

Join other Unitarian Universalist Youth of Color (People of African Descent, Caribbean, Native/American Indian, Asian and Pacific Islander, Latina/o and Hispanic, Middle Eastern/Arab, and Multiracial) for a five-day gathering to deepen our faith, lift our spirits, and build critical skills for leadership in the face of our uncertain, broken and beautiful world. Thrive participants will be guided by experienced co-facilitators as we worship, feast, play, explore our racial and ethnic identities, practice transformative leadership skills, and create authentic, supportive community. Thrive Youth is for any youth of high school age who is in 9th-12th grade during the 2016-2017 school year (or the equivalent for homeschooled). It's also open to any youth who bridges into young adulthood in the summer of 2017.

WUU Dinner Out Group

The WUU Dinner Out Group meets on the first Wednesday of every month at a variety of reasonably-priced restaurants in the Williamsburg area. We would love to have you join us. Please contact Dave Wilcox (dwilcox@vims.edu) or Dave Scherer (dscherer2@cox.net) for more information.

The Garden Circle is Planting New Ideas

We know what April showers bring! All those interested in gardening, landscapes and plants, are invited to join the Garden Circle to talk about future plantings in the new Playground Garden Space. Topics under discussion include raised beds, perennial choices, flower choices, butterfly gardens, labyrinths, water sources, swales and more. While people with experience in any of those topics would be greatly appreciated, absolutely everyone with an interest in exploring the interdependent web is invited. Contact susanwalkley@gmail.com with any questions.

Member Melinda Morgan is moving this month and would love to stay in touch with her friends here at WUU. Her email address will remain the same (minda5411@yahoo.com). Her new address is:
