Happy New Year! I am spending this first week of 2015 with my family in Ohio. As I leave for this short vacation, I want to share with you a book that many members of WUU read together in the summer of 2009--Eckhart Tolle's "A New Earth."

Tolle says that he took the title from a biblical passage in Revelation that points the way to a new heaven and a new earth. Rather than taking a literal understanding of these words, he sees this image as "a metaphor for the state of conscious awareness of infinite being (heaven), which continually comes forth in a new way into new form (earth)."

The Spirit of Life constantly reveals itself to us in both subtle and startling ways. Revelation comes in the form of powerful experiences--dramatic beauty, death, illness, reconciliation, forgiveness. It also comes in one perfectly formed snowflake and a hug from a child. From these experiences our notions of truth shift and grow.

As adherents of a liberal faith tradition, we do not believe that the book of truth is closed. This is what makes us a non-dogmatic faith. We are open to new truths that reveal themselves in many ways and through many teachers.

If you are looking for a fresh start to this new year, I recommend Tolle's work. He reveals a reality that is right here and available to anyone who will open themselves to a new truth. Here are some of his words (from www.eckharttolle.com):

"One thing we can do is to notice the little things all around us, paying attention to details such as the birds in the trees and the flowers in the garden or the park—just notice the beauty everywhere, even the smallest things. To notice seemingly insignificant things requires alertness. That alertness is the key. It is the unconditioned. It is consciousness itself.

In awakened doing there is complete internal alignment with the present moment and whatever you are doing right now. The doing is then not primarily a means to an end, but an opening for consciousness to come into this world. Aligning yourself with the Now is aligning yourself with universal purpose.

Awakened doing has three modalities, depending on circumstances and the nature of the activity. They are acceptance, enjoyment, and enthusiasm. If there is neither acceptance, enjoyment, or enthusiasm in what you do, you are out of alignment with universal purpose. You are creating unhappiness, that is to say suffering in one form or another."

May this year bring you closer to a new revelation--the revelation of your life's alignment with universal purpose. May all be well. May all be happy. May all be at peace.

Rev. Jennifer

News from the Board

Welcome to the New Year! On December 21st, the solar calendar completed a time of advent, waiting and anticipating the rebirth of the earth. On December 24th, the Christian liturgical calendar completed four weeks called Advent, waiting and anticipating a rebirth of the Prince of Peace. On January 1st, halfway through our fiscal year, WUU begins a time of advent, waiting and anticipating a rebirth of all that makes WUU our special home and a light in the world around us.

- We anxiously await the final results of the Capital Campaign and the final design of our expanded sanctuary building.
- We anxiously await the time to approve the final building project.
- We anxiously await the time to break ground.
- We anxiously await the selection of new members to the Board and Congregational Committees.
- We anxiously await ways to address continuing and new social justice causes.
- We anxiously await finding new ways to move along our Mission's path.
- We anxiously await seeing our beloved WUU mature further into its second quarter century.

So much awaits us in 2015. Things we know and can predict; things we don't know and will be surprised by their challenges and joys. Working together we can achieve all we dream of this year and enthusiastically meet the accompanying challenges and joys.

The Board begins the year by inviting you to two Congregational Meetings, February 15th and March 15th.

- February 15th, at 10:30, between the services:
  - Election of Board and congregational committee members
  - Updates from the Building Our Future Task Force and Rev. Jennifer
- March 15th, at 12:30, following the second service:
  - Presentation with discussion and vote for approval of the final expansion design and its costs.
  - Presentation with discussion and vote for approval of financial institution to carry loan for expansion.

All members and friends are invited to attend these important meetings that affect the life of our congregation. If you have signed the membership book and made an official pledge of financial support for the 2014-15 fiscal year, you are eligible to vote on the above issues. Absentee ballots will be available for voting members unable to attend in person.

In my absence throughout the month of January and the beginning of February, please address your questions and concerns for the Board to the Board Vice President, Rachel Delbos, rgross77@aol.com.

Best wishes from all the Board for the New Year.

Lola Warren, Board President

Do you know every WUU? Neither do I.

That's why we want to include a brief member biography in every newsletter.

Maybe you'll discover someone who shares your background, interests, or hobby. Maybe you'll learn something new about someone you already know. Or maybe you'll be moved to reach out to someone who needs to hear from you.

Please help us strengthen the WUU community by sharing your story. Together, we can weave a growing web of friendship, support, compassion, and love. Melissa Ackley, ackleymw@gmail.com

Spotlight on Susan Dexter

I grew up in Pennsylvania where my dad worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad. My parents were Presbyterians and raised us in that faith. During the Vietnam War, my mother became an activist and discovered the Unitarian faith.

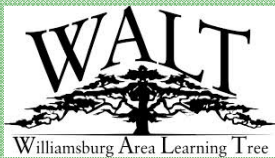

I met Lee, my husband of 47 years, at Miami University in Ohio. He was raised in Chicago as a Christian Scientist and still identifies with that faith, while frequently attending church with me.

We lived in Chicago and Dayton, before moving to Virginia. We were members of the Peninsula UU Fellowship for several years when we lived in Poquoson.

We have two children: Allison lives in Richmond, and Brian lives in Michigan with our granddaughter, Anna.

Lee's career has been in education, counseling, and athletics, and later in MWR in the Air Force and Army. Mine in social work and later real estate. My passion has been my family and our dogs, my interests are in art, reading, gardening, boating, animals, politics, and social justice issues.

We moved to Williamsburg in 1999 and I joined WUU in 2009 looking for some politically liberal people and ready to take the time to explore the UU faith. I have enjoyed getting to know so many wonderful people. I feel at home here.

WALT Class Proposals Welcomed

The Spring 2015 WALT Schedule of Courses is now accepting class proposals until January 10, 2015. We invite anyone interested in hosting a future class to visit the WALT website at www.wuu.org/walt or call Jill Whitten – Program Coordinator at 757-220-9975.

Twice a year the Williamsburg Area Learning Tree (WALT) offers assorted "Learning for Fun" classes that brings together individuals in our community to share their knowledge of a subject that they love so that the rest of us can learn from them. WALT, a community service project of the Williamsburg Unitarian Universalists, is a non-profit, educational program that encourages people to "Try Something New." For 15 years, hundreds of courses have been offered to everyone from teenagers to senior citizens. The upcoming Spring 2015 WALT Schedule of Courses will be available on Saturday, January 31 in the Virginia Gazette, online at www.wuu.org/walt, in print at the W/JCC Libraries.

Share the Plate Sunday, January 4

Greater Williamsburg Outreach Mission

The Share the Plate Program will donate the entire plate collection for Sunday, January 4, to GWOM (Greater Williamsburg Outreach Mission). This local non-profit – chartered in 2012 - has grown from 11 to 21 faith groups, focused on the spiritual practice of assisting the homeless population in our local communities. Our WUU representative is Helen Hansen, who also serves on the board and executive committee.

GWOM representatives collaborate with other stakeholders to learn about the needs of our homeless population and create action plans to assist.

Three years ago, GWOM helped initiate the Community of Faith Mission Emergency Homeless Shelter program. This winter, WUU will host the Winter Shelter February 15-22

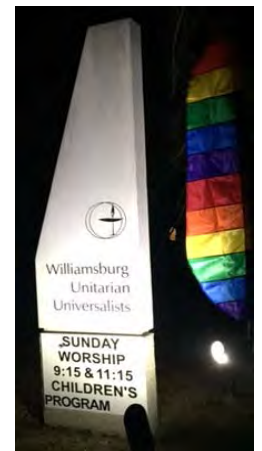

Greater Williamsburg Outreach Mission is currently planning a pilot program to open a year round Day Shelter that will offer respite, hope, and access to services, with the hope of helping those in need develop successful independence and self sufficiency. This is a substantial commitment of resources for this long term initiative, so GWOM is seeking funding from its members as well as outside sources. Please consider a generous donation to GWOM on January 4.

For more information about GWOM, please visit gwoutreachmission.org. For information about the WUU Share the Plate program or to nominate a recipient, email stp@wuu.org.

The Gayle Henion Creative Arts Group

This group has been meeting on Monday mornings since soon after our new co-ministers, Jennifer and Preston, arrived at WUU, about eight years ago. Rev. Jennifer and Gayle Henion formed the group by welcoming anyone involved in any of the creative arts to bring their projects and meet together on Mondays in the Fahs' kitchen. In the beginning the members' talents ranged from painting, collage, calligraphy & fabric arts--to creative writing and computer art.

Gayle became our leader and organizer. As a group, we worked together, sometimes went to lunch together, shared Christmas potlucks, helped with the Yule Sing and became friends. For five years, the group participated in and helped install the Green Sanctuary Art Exhibit in the Sanctuary each April. The exhibit, Celebrating the Earth Through Art, was open to all artists in the congregation and featured a variety of media.

We lost our dear friend and leader, Gayle, in 2013. But her spirit lives on in the Gayle Henion Creative Arts Group, where all who are interested in a place to work in the company of others are welcome. If you love art--bring your oils or watercolors, your drawing paper and pencils. If you create with paper, bring your scrapbook or card-making materials. If you quilt, knit or stitch, bring your fabrics, yarns and thread. All creative endeavors are welcome.

Please join us on Monday mornings in Fahs House from 10 am to Noon. Contact Grace McArdle or Donna Stanford for more information.

Truth, Prayer & Miracles – What Could Be Next?

As I write this column on Christmas Eve, January's spiritual theme of revelation seems almost prophetic. We've heard the "truth" about a capital campaign, "prayed" over its outcome, and realized the "miracle" of its apparent outcome. The rest is to be "revealed" in the coming months as the budgeting and planning leads to a February vote on the final project.

Given all that has happened in the last few months, and all that each of us has committed to the future success of our congregation, it seems almost inconsiderate to ask you to give more time, talent and treasure to WUU. Yet, for our common vision to be revealed, we need to invest further in our dreams for this religious community.

Your Finance Committee and Board have adopted a three year budget, and your Stewardship Committee has been meeting for the last few months in preparation for the 2015-16 annual canvass. Our upcoming goal of $331,000 to fund WUU programs from July 1, 2015-June 30, 2016 is possible with everyone's support. After all, we have received pledges of over $327,000 from 190 households in our congregation for the current year operations.

As we approach the annual canvass in February, please share your thoughts, concerns, and dreams with the Stewardship Committee. We want the canvass to be a short and productive process, and we welcome your ideas on how to improve.

We also appreciate your timely responses. Please continue to support the annual operations of our congregation by your generous contributions to the annual canvass when it commences on February 22nd.

Thank you for making our vision a revelation to us all.

With your gifts, help WUU thrive and bless the world!

Peter Mellette, for the Stewardship Committee (Dave Banks, Nancy Carnegie, Martha Elim, Peter Mellette, Ben Puckett, Jennifer Ryu (ex officio), Trena Tankersley)

New WUU Photo Directory

The long awaited WUU photo directory will be printed and distributed by the end of January. Thank you to our photographer, Jim Henion. If you were not able to come to one of our photo sessions you can submit your photo directly to Ellyn in the office (office@wuu.org) or bring it in and it can be scanned. It will be uploaded and updated in our password protected online photo directory that will be updated each month.

We are also trying to update our database, so please contact Ellyn if you notice any errors, omissions, or items that you would not like included in the directory.

Meet WUU's Office "Helper"

If you have been to the office since July you might have met our office kitty, Peter Parker.

Our Program Assistant, Ellyn Stephens, has been fostering him for the Heritage Humane Society since he was a sickly 2-week old kitten. He is now a healthy 6-month old and has been adopted by the Stephens family (adding to their menagerie of pets).

Peter comes to work with Ellyn in Parker House most weekdays from 9am-2pm—stop by and give him a scratch.
